

ACCOUNT SWITCH KIT

Switching your accounts to FORUM Credit Union can be as easy as 1 2 3.

From opening your new FORUM account to setting up automatic deposits, this checklist will help you simplify the process!

1 Open your new FORUM Credit Union account:

- You can apply for a Basic Savings, Checking or Health Savings Account online.
- Or, visit a branch location near you.

2 Establish your FORUM Credit Union Account to fit your needs:

- Change/Set-Up direct deposit to your account
 - Use this helpful form
 - To change your Social Security deposit, call 1-800-772-1213, or visit <https://www.ssa.gov/deposit/howtosign.htm>
 - FORUM's Routing Number is 274074037
- Change and set-up automatic payments from your account
 - Be sure to change existing automatic payments from your old institution to FORUM
 - Save time by setting up new automatic withdrawals for items including utilities, Netflix, and Amazon purchases
- Activate and use your debit card and enroll in FORUM's secure online banking program, CU Online
 - Manage accounts, set up alerts, pay bills and more
 - Download our mobile banking app on your Apple or Android device

3 Stop using and close your former bank account:

- Stop writing checks, initiating payments and using your ATM/Debit Card associated with your old account
- Make sure there are enough funds available to cover any scheduled payments
- Contact your old institution to close your account
 - Verify that all transactions have cleared your old account
 - Verify that your direct deposits are being made to your new FORUM account

It's that easy! Now enjoy the perks of being a FORUM Credit Union Member and contact us with any questions!
